ORAL JUDGEMENT

1. The matter was called out for hearing in first round in first sitting then in the second and third round in second sitting but none present for the petitioner. Perused the special civil application.

2. The petitioner, a Class-IV employee in the services of the respondents, by this petition under Article 226 of the Constitution is praying for direction to the respondents to send him for Pre Service Training and after completion of the said training, to permit him to appear in the examination for the post of Clerk in Class-III cadre. Further prayer has been made for direction to the respondents to grant all the consequential benefits to the petitioner on his passing of the said examination. Prayer has been made for interim relief also, but interim relief has not been granted by this Court.

3. From the record of the proceedings, I find that the petitioner also seems to have no interest in the matter. The absence of the counsel for the petitioner further fortifies that possibly now the grievance made by the petitioner in this petition may not survive by passing of time. Be that as it may. Still if the grievance of the petitioner or any of his grievances made in this petition survive, he is free to file a detailed representation for the same to the respondent No.1 and the respondent No.1 shall decide the same within a period of two months from the date of receipt thereof. In case where the order on representation goes adverse to the petitioner, liberty is granted to the petitioner for revival of this special civil application. The special civil application and Rule stand disposed of accordingly with no order as to costs.
